HEALTH AND SAFETY STATISTICS

IMPORTANCE

- Track progress
- Identify trends and patterns
- Raise awareness
- Allocate resources
- Mandatory requirement
- Future bids and tenders

SAFETY STATISTICS

promote safety by tracking, analysing and using statistics to inform decision making and reduce the risks of accidents or injuries

TYPES

- Injury and illness rates
- Incident rates
  - Accidents
  - Near misses
- Fatality rates
- Lost Time Injury Rates

OTHER DATA

- Individuals on site
- SWMS/JHAs completed
- Toolbox topics
- Number of audits/inspections

LEAD INDICTORS

- The primary use of safety statistics
- Early warning
- Proactively address hazards

SAFETY FIRST
CIVIL ENGINEERING